SUBJECT No. 587.

Amalgamation of A.-V. schools with high schools.

Mr. Surasastri, Chikballapur taluk.

Summary of Representation.—In places where there are high schools, it will be convenient to amalgamate the A.-V. schools with them. If this is not practicable, the Lower Secondary class may be tacked on to the A.-V. school, and an Upper Secondary class opened in the high school.

SUBJECT No. 588.

Conversion of Middle Urdu schools into Anglo-Hindustani schools.

Mr. M. G. Mekhri, Central Mahomedan Association, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—As English education is of paramount importance in these days for the advancement of the condition of Mussalmans whose backwardness is so ruinous, the Association most respectfully urges the immediate necessity for converting the undermentioned pure Hindustani schools at taluk headquarters into Anglo-Hindustani schools by providing them with one or more English teachers.

1. Hassan	8. Closepet
2. Chikmagalur	9. Chamrajnagar
3. Shimoga	10. Nelamangala
4. Sira	11. Kunigal
5. Dodballapur	12. Maddagiri
6. Chikballapur	13. Tarikere
7. Mulbagal	14. Gubbi

Out of the 50 Urdu Middle Schools now existing, at least 14 may be converted into Anglo-Hindustani schools immediately as they are very promising, and the remaining ones may be taken up in due course. This matter was repeatedly urged and the Government also was pleased to note the same from time to time for consideration. It is therefore prayed that the Government will be graciously pleased to pass immediate orders so as to meet this pressing want of the community throughout the State.

SUBJECT No. 589.

Conversion of village elementary schools into A.-V. schools.

Mr M. Subba Rao, Hassan District Board

Summary of Representation.—The Government may be pleased to sanction the conversion of the village elementary schools in important places other than the taluk headquarters in the district into Anglo-Vernacular schools, and thus promote the spread of English education throughout the State.

There is an institution of the kind at Saligram in the Mysore district.

SUBJECT No. 590.

Exchange of teachers.

Mr. S. Venkatesaiya, Hassan District Agricultural and Industrial Association.

Summary of Representation.—Exchange of teachers between the colleges and high schools and between high schools and Anglo-Vernacular schools is likely to secure greater efficiency in all the institutions and may be tried.
